CAMP ELMWOOD

An Urban Adventure for Young People Ages Five to Thirteen and Teen Counselors Ages Thirteen to Eighteen

Monday through Friday, August 8-12, 2011

Under the Redwoods on the Grounds of St. John's Presbyterian Church,
2727 College Avenue, Berkeley, 94705

SCHEDULE: 9:00 AM TO 2:30 PM. Post session until 5:30 PM. Let us know if camper will need to arrive earlier or stay later. Camp will continue until 3:30 PM on Thursday for swim-hike and until 8:30 PM on Friday for barbeque and program.

ACTIVITIES: Basketball, volleyball, skate board half pipe, ping pong, lawn games, art, music, drama, dance, science, cooking, swim-hike, community service, opportunities for leadership. Our theme this year: Patience: What is it? Why should we be patient? Are there times we should be impatient? We will explore our theme through role play, drama, art, music, shared experiences, and stories of patient and impatient people. We will seek to live together for one week with patience in a fun filled, non-competitive environment.

COST: Camp Elmwood is for everyone. We request donations of $90.00 ($80.00 additional campers same family) for our regular session and $30.00 for our post session. Camperships are available. Each camper will bring his/her lunch and a food contribution for our Friday barbeque. We will provide morning and afternoon snacks.

Please complete and return registration application as soon as possible. For more information and applications for our teen leadership camp (August 1-5) and teen counselor program go to <http://www.stjohnsberkeley.org> or call (510) 845-6830 extension 13.

Camp Elmwood is a community service program of St. John's Presbyterian Church, Berkeley, emphasizing creativity, values, and concern for others. This is our eighteenth year.
